Alter and amend the Law relating to the Registration of Parliamentary Voters in Ireland. A D. 1891.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

5 1. This Act may for all purposes be cited as the Parliamentary Registration (Ireland) Act, 1891. Short title.

2. This Act shall extend to Ireland only. Extent.

3.—(1.) All lists of rated occupiers, inhabitant occupiers, voters, and persons claiming to vote in a polling district of a county or
10 division of a county shall be arranged by townlands, arranged, so far as may be possible, in the order in which they appear in the books in which the rates for the relief of the poor are entered pursuant to section forty-five of an Act of the first and second years of Her present Majesty, for the more effectual relief of the 15 destitute poor in Ireland. Preparation of lists.

(2.) The Lord Lieutenant may by an Order in Council postpone the operation of this section in any county or division of a county to a day not later than the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two. Postponement of operation.

20 4.—(1.) The costs of a party to an appeal against a decision of a revising barrister may be ordered by the Court of Appeal to be paid by the clerk of the peace or town clerk of the county or parliamentary borough, as the case may be, to which the appeal relates. Amendment of 45 Vict. c. 17, s. 26.

25 (2.) A clerk of the peace or town clerk shall not be named as respondent in any appeal unless it relates to his right to be registered as a voter.

(3.) Any costs which a clerk of the peace or town clerk may be ordered to pay to a party to an appeal shall be allowed to him as 30 part of the expenses incurred by him in respect of the revision of the list to which the appeal relates.
